Susan Levin

Leadership Development & Change Management Expert

Global consultant, certified coach and mediator, with expertise in facilitation, training, leadership development and change management in more than 40 countries.

slevin@dialogueforsolutions.co

Linkedin

Contact

30 Years of experience

Professional Bio:

Susan Levin is the president of Dialogue for Solutions, a global consulting firm dedicated to unlocking human potential and driving meaningful change and concrete organizational outcomes. She is a certified coach and mediator, and also has expertise in facilitation, training, leadership development and change management. She has provided her human-centered approach to strategic planning, strengthening teamwork and envisioning the future in more than 40countries. Partnering with her clients, she's mindful that her projects are culturally relevant. She focuses on amplifying individual and organizational strengths to create lasting, impactful results.

Skills & Expertise:

Localization / Capacity Strengthening; Stakeholder Engagement; Climate & Resilience; Strategic Planning; Conflict & Stabilization

Sectors of Work:

International Development; Public Health; Climate & Environment; Diplomacy & Foreign Affairs; Democracy & Governance; Human Rights

Languages Spoken:

English, Spanish